Dear Professor Montagnani,

I hope you are well and enjoying your holiday break thus far. I am emailing you to acknowledge that in March of 2022, the UC Davis Law Review accepted your article, What Makes Data Personal?, for submission in our February 2023 issue.

As we get close to the publication date, I wanted to thank you again for choosing to publish with UC Davis Law Review. It has been a pleasure working with you!

All the best,

Natalie
